SHOW-ME MY RIGHTS TOUR

NOW BOOKING STOPS

A free, traveling Know-Your-Rights resources table for transgender, nonbinary, gender non-conforming, and intersex (TGNCI) Missourians, the people who love them, & allies who want to learn more. Hosted by the ACLU of Missouri.

The ACLU of Missouri is traveling anywhere in the state where there's a need, from the Bootheel to northwest Missouri, to deliver plain-language know-your-rights information!

Please note that any legal information shared during the Show-Me My Rights Tour is not intended as legal advice.*

OUR TRAVELING TABLE

- Free take-home materials on legal rights & resources every TGNCI Missourian & ally should know
- A safe space to share the legal issues you're facing at work, in school, in housing, or in daily life
- A chance to add your story of trans joy (or allyship!) to ACLU-MO's "Show-Me Trans, Gender Non-Conforming & Intersex Missourians Belong Storytelling Project"—participation is optional & all stories are anonymous!
- Community staffing by a trans attorney

BRING THE TOUR TO YOUR CORNER OF MISSOURI

STEP 1: FIND A SAFE MEETING PLACE

All we need is a place where we can set up our table for a few hours. Exs: an affirming local business, congregation, festival, clinic, community center.

STEP 2: HELP US GET THE WORD OUT

Once a stop is confirmed, share it through your local networks, social media groups, mailing lists & group chats!
