

Message History (7)

✉ On 9/13/2021 4:27:40 PM, City of St. Louis Public Records Center wrote:

Subject: [Records Center] Public Records Request :: R000724-043021

Body:

Dear Maureen Hanlon,

Your request has been sent to the Custodian of Records for the Corrections Division to be fulfilled.

The Custodian of Records has again advised that additional time is necessary to locate and identify any records responsive to your request, and per the Custodian of Records a review of any such records will be conducted to determine whether those records contain any otherwise legally protected information. Due to the foregoing, additional time will be necessary to respond to your request.

The costs incurred to research, retrieve, copy, and furnish responsive records will be charged, pursuant to Chapter 610.026, RSMo. The cost to fulfill your request will be provided to you at the conclusion of all research for responsive records.

Per the Custodian of Records, the earliest time and date records, if any, will be available in My Records Center on behalf of the Custodian of Records is the close of business on October 29, 2021.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sims
Sunshine Law Coordinator
City Counselor's Office

✉ On 8/10/2021 9:38:14 AM, City of St. Louis Public Records Center wrote:

Subject: [Records Center] Public Records Request :: R000724-043021

Body:

Dear Maureen Hanlon,

Your request has been sent to the Custodian of Records for the Corrections Division to be fulfilled.

The Custodian of Records has advised that additional time is necessary to locate and identify any records responsive to your request, and per the Custodian of Records a review of any such records will be conducted to determine whether those records contain any otherwise legally protected information. Due to the foregoing, additional time will be necessary to respond to your request.

The costs incurred to research, retrieve, copy, and furnish responsive records will be charged, pursuant to Chapter 610.026, RSMo. The cost to fulfill your request will be provided to you at the conclusion of all research for responsive records.

Per the Custodian of Records, the earliest time and date records, if any, will be available in My Public Records Center on behalf of the Custodian of Records is the close of business on September 13, 2021.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sims
Sunshine Law Coordinator
City Counselor's Office

✉ On 7/9/2021 5:06:48 PM, City of St. Louis Public Records Center wrote:

Subject: [Records Center] Public Records Request :: R000724-043021

Body: Dear Maureen Hanlon,

Your request has been sent to the Custodian of Records for the Corrections Division to be fulfilled.

The City of St. Louis still continues to take efforts to help prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus, both for our employees and the public, in accordance with the Health Commissioner's Orders. Staff availability and access to files/databases to locate responsive records continues to be limited. Once the process of locating and identifying any documents responsive to your request is complete, a review of any such documents will be conducted to determine whether they contain any otherwise legally protected information. Due to the foregoing additional time will be necessary to respond to your request.

The costs incurred to research, retrieve, copy, and furnish responsive records will be charged, pursuant to Chapter 610.026, RSMo. The cost to fulfill your request will be provided to you at the conclusion of all research for responsive records.

Based on the above, the earliest time and date records, if any, will be available in My Public Records Center on behalf of the Custodian of Records is the close of business on August 10, 2021.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sims
Sunshine Law Coordinator
City Counselor's Office

✉ On 6/3/2021 4:32:02 PM, City of St. Louis Public Records Center wrote:

Subject: [Records Center] Public Records Request :: R000724-043021

Body:

Dear Maureen Hanlon,

Your request has been sent to the Custodian of Records for the Corrections Division to be fulfilled.

The City of St. Louis continues to take efforts to help prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus, both for our employees and the public, in accordance with the Health Commissioner's Orders. Staff availability and access to files/databases to locate responsive records continues to be limited. Once the process of locating and identifying any documents responsive to your request is complete, a review of any such documents will be conducted to determine whether they contain any otherwise legally protected information. Due to the foregoing additional time will be necessary to respond to your request.

The costs incurred to research, retrieve, copy, and furnish responsive records will be charged, pursuant to Chapter 610.026, RSMo. The cost to fulfill your request will be provided to you at the conclusion of all research for responsive records.

Based on the above, the earliest time and date records, if any, will be available in My Public Records Center on behalf of the Custodian of Records is the close of business on July 9, 2021.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sims
Sunshine Law Coordinator
City Counselor's Office

✉ On 5/6/2021 12:28:41 PM, City of St. Louis Public Records Center wrote:

Subject: [Records Center] Public Records Request :: R000724-043021

Body:

Dear Maureen Hanlon,

Your request has been sent to the Custodian of Records for the Corrections Division to be fulfilled.

The City of St. Louis is taking efforts to help prevent the spread of the COVID-19 virus, both for our employees and the public, in accordance with the Health Commissioner's Orders. Staff availability and access to files/databases to locate responsive records is limited. Once the process of locating and identifying any documents responsive to your request is complete, a review of any such documents will be conducted to determine whether they contain any otherwise legally protected information. Due to the foregoing additional time will be necessary to respond to your request.

The costs incurred to research, retrieve, copy, and furnish responsive records will be charged, pursuant to Chapter 610.026, RSMo. The cost to fulfill your request will be provided to you at the conclusion of all research for responsive records.

Based on the above, the earliest time and date records, if any, will be available in My Public Records Center on behalf of the Custodian of Records is the close of business on June 3, 2021.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Joseph Sims
Sunshine Law Coordinator
City Counselor's Office

✉ On 4/30/2021 5:53:58 PM, City of St. Louis Public Records Center wrote:

---

Dear Maureen Hanlon:

Your request has been received and is being processed. Your request was received in this office on 5/3/2021 and given the reference number R000724-043021 for tracking purposes.

You may review the details of your records request using the “My Records Center” link provided below.

Your request will be forwarded to the relevant department(s) based on the selections and details you provided in submitting your request. The Custodian(s) of Records for these department(s) will locate the records, if any, responsive to your request as well as determine any costs, pursuant to Chapter 610.026, RSMo., associated with fulfilling your request.

PLEASE NOTE: The Sunshine Law does not require a governmental body to create a new record, provide legal research, analysis, or conclusions, nor to answer questions or respond to information queries.

You can monitor the progress of your request at the link below and you'll receive an email when your request has been completed. Thank you for using the Sunshine Law/Public Records Center.

City of St. Louis

To monitor the progress or update this request please log into the Sunshine Law/Public Records Center

---

 On 4/30/2021 5:53:56 PM, Maureen Hanlon wrote:

Request Created on Public Portal