

ADRIA AND PATRICIA WEBB

MARRIED 4 YEARS • TOGETHER 5 YEARS

ADRIA AND PATRICIA

Adria is an artist, performer, and restaurant server, and Patricia is a pharmaceutical product inspector.

They live in St. Louis and are raising two children, aged 12 and 13.

HOW THEY MET

As part of her job, Patricia was sent to the rehearsal for a band that would be performing at a function. She had been told the singer had a beautiful voice.

Before the rehearsal began, she met the singer's two children. The daughter told Patricia, "My mommy is the greatest." When she finally heard Adria's voice, she agreed that she was a wonderful singer. Since that day, as Patricia and Adria fell in love, she has learned that Adria is beautiful inside and out.

WHY MARRIAGE MATTERS

Adria and Patricia see marriage as the most faithful of commitments. They have taught their children that marriage is the natural progression when two people are deeply in love. Marriage also protects their family from harm. They are both actively involved in the children's lives, and it is important to them that they be married for the children, as well as for themselves.

ACLU

AMERICAN CIVIL LIBERTIES UNION of MISSOURI

FOUNDATION

FOR MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT:

Diane Balogh, 314-669-3425, dbalogh@aclu-mo.org
Robyn Shepherd, 212-519-7829, rshepherd@aclu.org