METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT - CITY OF ST. LOUIS

INTRA-DEPARTMENT REPORT AND CORRESPONDENCE SHEET

Date: March 27, 2007
To: Sergeant Sheila Pearson, Internal Affairs
From: Captain John Hayden, Commander of Internal Affairs
Subject: Phone Interview with Mr. Jermaine Carter – 06-088349

Sgt. Sheila Pearson:

On March 26, 2007 at 1:40 PM, I made phone contact with Mr. Jermaine Carter (313) 221-4749, a suspect in Police Incident Report Number 06-088349, entitled Reselling Tickets at Higher Price (Scalping). I contacted Mr. Carter so that he could explain the circumstances around his arrest on 10-25-06 at 3:00 PM to the end that his explanation could be compared with the information submitted by P.O. Phillip Menendez in the narrative of the Police Report.

Mr. Carter stated that he, Demond Screws and Lonell Harris were in St. Louis for the World Series, but were all from Detroit. He mentioned that Harris had 4 tickets in his possession to the game that evening, but they needed 5 tickets, so that 2 other friends from Detroit could meet up with them and join them for the game.

Carter stated that he, Screws and Harris were having drinks near a bar area in the lobby of a Hilton Hotel down the street from Busch Stadium, when Harris struck up a conversation with a couple of guys about the possibility of acquiring an additional ticket. Carter stated that suddenly, the guys announced themselves as police officers and accused all three of them of working together in an attempt to scalp tickets.

Carter stated that the 3 of them were arrested and the tickets were seized from Harris, but he (Carter) had no tickets in his possession at the time of the arrest. Carter further mentioned that at some point during their arrest, Harris complained of missing money, however, he could not remember the dollar amount alleged to have been missing.

I advised Carter that I had tried to contact both Screws and Harris by phone unsuccessfully and had also mailed certified letters to the addresses they had provided in the Police Report. Carter stated that he sees Screws on rare occasions, but sees Harris fairly often and would give Harris my phone number with instructions to contact me.

Carter said that he could be re-contacted, if necessary, at the same phone number he provided in the Police Report.

Sincerely,

Captain John Hayden

NARRATIVE

The Narcotics Section was conducting a 'Ticket Scalping' detail in the downtown area near Busch Stadium, relative to game 3 of the 2006 Baseball World Series between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Detroit Tigers.

Detective Jason Scheel, DSN 4606, and I were walking in the 700 block of Walnut when we were approached by Myron M. Myron M. asked me if I wanted to purchase any tickets for the baseball game. It should be noted that Detective Scheel and I were wearing plain clothes acting in an undercover capacity as if we were interested in buying ball tickets for the game.

I advised Myron M. that I was interested in purchasing at least one ticket. Myron M. advised me that he had one ticket and he would sell it to me for five hundred dollars. Myron M. handed me the ticket so I could see where the seats were located. I observed the face value for the ticket to be one hundred and fifty dollars. I agreed to purchase the tickets.

Detective Scheel and I identified ourselves as police officers verbally and by displaying our police badges to Myron M. I advised Myron M. that he was under arrest for 'Resale of Tickets Too High'. Myron M. spontaneously stated 'man I ain't hurtin' nobody'. I immediately interrupt Myron M. and read him his Miranda Rights to which he verbally stated he understood. Myron M. made no other statements.

Myron M. was summons and released.

NARRATIVE

On October 24th, 2006, the Narcotics Section was conducting a `Ticket Scalping` detail in the downtown area, near Busch Stadium for game three of the 2006 baseball World Series between the Saint Louis Cardinals and the Detroit Tigers.

I was standing across the street from the Westin Hotel, when I observed a black male approaching people as they passed by, and asking if they were interested in purchasing two tickets. I walked across the street and asked the subject how much he wanted for the tickets. The subject informed me that he wanted four hundred dollars for each ticket. I informed the subject that I was worried about the tickets being fake. The subject stated that the tickets were not fake and handed them to me. Observing that the face value of the tickets were two hundred fifty dollars each, I informed the subject that he was under arrest for Resaling Tickets Too High.

The subject, who identified himself as Willie S., was advised of his Constitutional Rights, per Miranda, which he stated that he understood.

The tickets were seized as evidence.

NARRATIVE

The Narcotics Section was conducting a `Ticket Scalping` detail in the downtown area near Busch Stadium, relative to game three of the 2006 Baseball World Series between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Detroit Tigers. Game.

Detective Jason Scheel, DSN 4606, and I were walking in the 700 block of Clark when we were approached by Malcolm F. Malcolm F. asked me if I wanted to purchase any tickets for the baseball game. It should be noted that Detective Scheel and I were wearing plain clothes, acting in an undercover capacity, as if we were interested in buying tickets for the game.

I advised Malcolm F. that I was interested in purchasing at least one ticket. Malcolm F. advised me that he had two tickets and he would sell them to me for one thousand dollars per ticket. Malcolm F. handed to me the tickets so I could see where the seats were located. I observed the face value for the ticket to be one hundred seventy five dollars each.

Detective Scheel and I verbally identified ourselves as Police Officers and displayed our Department issued Police badges to Malcolm F. I advised Malcolm F. that he was under arrest for `Resale of Tickets Too High`. Malcolm F. spontaneously stated he just drove in from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and was `just trying to make some extra money`. I immediately interrupted Malcolm F. and read to him his Miranda Rights to which he verbally stated he understood. Malcolm F. made no other statements.

Due to Malcolm F. residing out of state he was conveyed to the Central Patrol Station where he was booked accordingly.
