NARRATIVE

While working the scalping detail for the 2006 World Series, Det. Thomas Mabrey DSN 3278, Cynthia Hutchcraft DSN 5618 and I, Thomas Bottini DSN 1839. While seated in an unmarked vehicle we observed Joseph P. standing on the corner of Chestnut and Broadway conduct an exchange of two (2) tickets for currency Joseph P. had removed the tickets from an envelope and placed the currency inside of the same envelope.

After observing the exchange we exited our unmarked police vehicle and stood near Joseph P. so as to overhear other conversations of possible transactions. We observed the offender Joseph P. to offer two (2) World Series tickets for $300.00 each, to an unknown white male wearing a red Cardinal jacket and cap. The male asked for the original price of the ticket and was told by Joseph P., the price of the tickets were $150.00 each. The prospective buyer declined.

We approached Joseph P. and identified ourselves as police officers and advised him he was under arrest for trying to sell tickets above face value. Joseph P. was read his rights per Miranda and advised he understood. Joseph P. stated, 'I was just trying to help a buddy out.' While performing a pat down search, I retrieved the envelope from Joseph P.'s front pocket of his hoodie. Upon looking inside I located the two tickets he offered for sale they are described as Section 452 Row 6 Seats 9 & 10, as well as 3 - $100.00 bills, 12 tickets from the NFL St Louis Rams vs Detroit Lions game dated October 1st, 2006, and 4 tickets from the NHL St Louis Blues vs Phoenix Coyotes game dated October 17, 2006.

It should be noted that an additional $535.00 was found in Joseph P.'s pocket he advised that this money was his, the money in the envelope was his buddy's however he declined to comment further. Joseph P. was booked for the charges listed on the offender screen the currency from the envelope and tickets were seized as evidence.
