NARRATIVE

On October 24th, 2006, the Narcotics Section was conducting a `Ticket Scalping` detail in the downtown area, near Busch Stadium. This investigation involved the World Series, between the Saint Louis Cardinals and the Detroit Tigers, home game #3.

I was standing near the Westin Hotel, when I observed a black male asking people as they passed by if they were interested in purchasing tickets. The subject approached me and stated that he had good tickets. The subject removed tickets from his jacket pocket and handed me four tickets and stated, `They good tickets`. The subject informed me that he was selling the tickets for four hundred dollars each. Observing that the face value of the tickets were one hundred fifty dollars and two hundred twenty five dollars, respectively, I informed the subject that he was under arrest for Resaling Tickets Too High.

The subject, who identified himself as Ronald W., was advised of his Constitutional Rights, per Miranda, which he stated that he understood.

Ronald W. was issued a summons and released.

The tickets were seized as evidence.

Reviewing Sergeant: Joseph Morici, DSN 4306

Date & Time of Arrest: 10/26/2006 @ 15:20

Arrest Suspect: Shawn Blacknoll

Location of Arrest: 400 Clark Street

Charge: “Reselling Tickets at Higher Price (Scalping)”

Tickets Seized: None seized according to report

Tickets Scanned: No

Evidence Initialed: No

Additional Items Seized:

Warrant Information: None Found

NOTATION: There were improprieties with this arrest incident, because an evidence bag with the case file showed tickets seized during Blacknoll's arrest.

The report indicated no tickets were seized. Officer Biondolino wrote that Blacknoll did not have any tickets for Thursday, October 26, 2006, but he did have two bleacher tickets for Friday, October 27, 2007, and offered Officer Biondolino the tickets at a cost of $200.00 each. Officer Biondolino said he knew the cost of the tickets were $90.00 each and identified himself as a police officer and arrested Blacknoll, however, Blacknoll did not have tickets on him. Blacknoll said a friend had the tickets and left when Officer Biondolino identified himself as a police officer. An examination of the evidence bag prepared for this arrest incident revealed two Scoreboard Patio Tickets, Game 3, Row 3, Seats 5 & 6. A check of these tickets showed the tickets were not used, but it is unclear at this point where the tickets came from. Tickets may belong to 06/088099

NARRATIVE

On 10-26-06 while working the scalping detail for game 4 of the World Series between the Detroit Tigers and the St. Louis Cardinals I summonsed subject Shawn B. for resale tickets too high.

While walking in the area of 400 Clark I observed Shawn B. walking up to individuals and appear to be offering to sell tickets. I approached Shawn B. and asked him if he had any tickets for the game. He advised me not for tonight but he had two in the bleachers for Friday nights game, and then motioned to an unknown black male in a red cardinals jacket for two.

I said ok, and he asked me how much I had because they were going to cost me $200.00 each. Being fully aware that the face value of these tickets were only $90.00 I identified myself as a detective and advised him that he would be issued a summons for resale tickets too high.

Shawn B. however had no tickets in his possession and stated that his partner who was with him watching had the tickets and left when I identified myself.

Attempts to locate the second individual with Shawn B. who was in possession of the described tickets was to no avail.
