NARRATIVE

Detective Joseph Somogye DSN 3913, Fred Lathan DSN 5240, and I were assigned to a `Ticket Scalping` detail in the downtown area near Busch stadium. This investigation involved Home Game #2 of the Major League Baseball Playoffs, St. Louis Cardinals vs New York Mets.

I approached James P. in the 500 block of Chessnut. I asked him if he was selling any Cardinal Baseball tickets, and if he had any in the field box section. James P. stated `Yes, I have two. He further stated that he did not want to discuss price until he determined I was not a Police officer. He insisted I show him an ID, and then he asked me how much I wanted to spend, he stated he could give me the field box ticket he had for $150.00. I agreed to the price.

It should be noted that the ticket he was going to sell me had a face value of $63.00.

Detective Somogye approached and we identified ourselves as police officers by displaying my department badge and credentials. I issued James P. a summons for `Resale Tickets Too High.`

The ticket had a face value of $63.00 and is listed as follows:
Section 167 Row 21 Seat 22

The listed ticket was seized. I marked, packaged, and placed the property in the Property Custody Room as evidence.

NARRATIVE

While working an undercover ticket scalping detail for the St. Louis Cardinals baseball World Series game Detective Ehnes and I were approached by Eric J. Eric J. asked if we wanted to buy tickets. Eric J. wanted to sell two $200.00 tickets for $4000.00.

Detective Ehnes and I advised Eric J. that we were Police Officers and displayed our department badge and identification and advised him that he was under arrest for Reselling Tickets at a Higher Price and advised him of the Constitutional Rights per MPD Form GEN-19, which he stated he understood. Eric J. became irate that he was being placed under arrest and stated `Now I`m out the money for the tickets. This is bullshit. I ain`t hurting no one. If I`m going to jail, I want you to count my money. I know exactly how much I have and I don`t trust any of you motherfuckers.`

Eric J. was conveyed to the Central Patrol Division. A computer check of Eric J. revealed no active wanteds or warrants. The tickets were seized as evidence.

NARRATIVE

On the above date, I was working the 'World Series, Ticket Scalping Detail' in the Four District in St. Louis, City.

While working the detail, I was walking in the area Broadway and Market, when I observed a white male standing on the sidewalk asking pedestrians if they wanted to buy some tickets to the 2006 World Series game. I approached the subject later identified as Chris H. and asked him how much he wanted for the tickets. Chris H. stated he had two tickets and he wanted four hundred dollars for each ticket. I agreed to purchase the tickets at which time Chris H. produced two tickets for the lodge box, section 277, row 2, seats 1 and 2, with the face value of two hundred and dollars.

I retrieved my badge and advised Chris H. I was the police and placed him under arrest for 'Resale Tickets Too High'.

After a computer check on Chris H. revealed no active wanteds or warrants, Chris H. was issued a summons and released at the scene.

The tickets were seized, marked and packaged as evidence.

NARRATIVE

Detective Thomas Kranz and I were assigned to a `Ticket Scalping` detail in the downtown area near Busch Stadium. This investigation involved Game Four of the Major League Baseball Playoffs, St. Louis Cardinals Vs Detroit Tigers.

Detective Kranz and I approached Matthew E. and asked him if he was selling any Cardinals Baseball tickets. Matthew E stated, `Yes, I got two for eight hundred dollars each.` I agreed to the price.

Detective Kranz and I identified ourselves as Police Officers by displaying our department badges and credentials. I issued Matthew E. a summons for `Resale Tickets Too High`.

The Tickets each had a value of $225.00 and are listed as follows:

Section 167 Row 11 seat 7

Section 167 Row 11 seat 8

The listed tickets were seized, Detective Kranz marked, packaged, and placed the property in the Property Custody Room as evidence.

NARRATIVE

Detective Fredrick Lathan, DSN 5240 and I were assigned to a `Ticket Scalping` detail in the downtown area near Busch Stadium. This investigation involved Game 3 of the Major League World Series, between the St. Louis Cardinals Vs Detroit Tigers.

Detective Lathan and I were approached by Jeffery B. in the 400 block of Market. I asked him if he was selling any Cardinal Baseball tickets. Jeffery B. stated, `Yes, I have three and I am asking $400.00 a piece.` I agreed to the price.

Detective Lathan and I identified ourselves as police officer by displaying our department badge and credentials. We advised Jeffery B. that he was under arrest for `Resale Tickets Too High` and read him his Miranda Rights, per Gen-19, which he stated that he understood and made the following statement, `I was just selling these to get my money back`.

The tickets had a face value of $150.00 and are listed as follows:
Section 431, Row 7, seats 13 and 14 for 10/25/06 and Section 431, Row 7, seat 13.

The listed tickets were seized. I marked, packaged, and placed the property in the Property Custody Room as evidence.
