

TAPED INTERVIEW
OF
POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL EHNES, DSN 5628
DATED
MARCH 15, 2007

SGT. PEARSON: This is Sgt. Sheila Pearson investigator of Internal Affairs Division. Today is Thursday, March 15, and the time is approximately 9:37 a.m. This interview is being conducted in the office of the Internal Affairs. Conducting this interview will be commander of Internal Affairs, Capt. John Hayden, Deputy Commander, Lt. Jack Huelsmann, Sgt. Sue McClain, and myself. Also present in the room is Officer Ehnes, Michael Ehnes, DSN 5628, and his attorney Brian Mulligan. This interview is being conducted regarding an allegation of conduct unbecoming stemming from an arrest made during the ticket scalping detail through the St. Louis Cardinals World-Series of October of 2006. Officer Ehnes I see you've signed an Advise of Rights Form. Did you attorney have an opportunity to go over them with you and you understand the contents?

P.O. EHNES: Yes.

SGT. PEARSON: You do understand that if refuse to answer any questions, if you lie during this questioning, if you give any misleading answers it will lead to departmental charges and possibly discharge?

P.O. EHNES: Yes.

SGT. PEARSON: Officer Ehnes we like to first talk about an arrest you made on October 5, uh correction October 25th bearing complaint number 06088366. Uh can you give us a brief summary of that arrest?

P.O. EHNES: Could I take a look at it real quick? (silence..) Uh yeah I was working an undercover detail uh were we targeted the ticket scalping and a Melvin Hackett attempted to sell uh, me tickets for $800; two tickets, and the face value is a $150.

SGT. PEARSON: And uh you arrested him, or what happened?

P.O. EHNES: Uh he was released on a summons.

SGT. PEARSON: Ok. So at that time um what was taken as evidence with this arrest?

P.O. EHNES: Two tickets to game 4.

SGT. PEARSON: And those two tickets while you were summoning him where were those two tickets located at?

P.O. EHNES: Uh, I would have, had been seized by, I had (inaudible)

SGT. PEARSON: You had them on you?

P.O. EHNES: I'd taken them.

SGT. PEARSON: And after the summons where were those tickets placed?

P.O. EHNES: Uh they would have stayed in my pocket.

SGT. PEARSON: And uh later what happened with those tickets?

P.O. EHNES: Uh my wife and son went to the game.

SGT. PEARSON: So you're contending that you took uh these two tickets that were evidence and gave them to your wife and your son; is that correct?

P.O. EHNES: Yes.

SGT. PEARSON: And, um, where did this exchange of uh do, did you have that prearranged that you were gonna give them to them or how did that occur?

P.O. EHNES: No, I had called.

SGT. PEARSON: You called....?

P.O. EHNES: I'm sorry, my wife.

SGT. PEARSON: Ok. So when did you call your wife?

P.O. EHNES: I don't exactly recall.

SGT. PEARSON: You don't recall? Did you call your wife immediately after the arrest, later on, when; was it just before the game?

P.O. EHNES: Uh I wouldn't say immediately after but it was before the game.

SGT. PEARSON: Had you already discussed with her prior to this that you were going to be calling her about the tickets to come down?

P.O. EHNES: No, no.

SGT. PEARSON: Um so your part, who was your partner on this arrest?

P.O. EHNES: I believe it was Rob Singh.

SGT. PEARSON: And was he present during the arrest?

P.O. EHNES: Yes.

SGT. PEARSON: Was he uh present uh when you made this phone call to your wife to uh offer her the tickets?

P.O. EHNES: I don't know if he was standing right there or not. I mean we were together, but I don't know if he was paying attention.

SGT. PEARSON: Was he present when you handed over the tickets to your wife?

P.O. EHNES: Yes.

SGT. PEARSON: So he was there? And had you had a conversation with him about your intentions with these tickets?

P.O. EHNES: Uh yeah I told him that you know I was gonna see if my wife and son wanted to go to the game.

SGT. PEARSON: And when did you have this discussion with him?

P.O. EHNES: Right before I called my wife.

SGT. PEARSON: So had you already discussed this to him prior to that day even before the arrest?

P.O. EHNES: No, no it's when I got the tickets.

SGT. PEARSON: Um so your wife and your son received those tickets produced by IAD pursuant to: they do with those tickets?

SGT. PEARSON: And when did you receive those tickets back?

P.O. EHNES: Uhhhh when I got home.

SGT. PEARSON: That evening?

P.O. EHNES: Yeah.

SGT. PEARSON: And then from there what did you do with the tickets?

P.O. EHNES: They were uh packaged as evidence.

SGT. PEARSON: And, and packaged as evidence, where were they placed?

P.O. EHNES: Uh, uh, uh 7th, I'm sorry the Narcotics' safe.

SGT. PEARSON: The narcotics safe? And, and where's the safe located?

P.O. EHNES: Sgt. Boone's office.

SGT. PEARSON: So at that time was um your sergeant uh prior to you giving the tickets to your wife or when you gave the tickets to your wife or when you gave the tickets to your wife um did you inform your sergeant what you had done with the tickets?

P.O. EHNES: Um no.

SGT. PEARSON: So when was, when did your sergeant become aware of what you had done with the tickets?

P.O. EHNES: I'm guessing when the complaint came down they asked if I'd used any and I'd said yeah.

SGT. PEARSON: Your lieutenant when did he become aware that you had done this with the tickets?

P.O. EHNES: Um I'm guessing with the complaint.

P.O. EHNES: No.

SGT. PEARSON: How, how..in...in interviewing speaking with other people from the Narcotics office they have stated just a broad range of word usage um that it was common knowledge that this could be done with these tickets, give them to someone else, let them scan it, and then place it into evidence. Um have you ever heard conversation such as that in the Narcotics office?

P.O. EHNES: No, I mean I heard in passing or whatever that you know somebody might have used tickets, you know, World-Series tickets.

SGT. PEARSON: So the answer is no or yes?

P.O. EHNES: I guess yes.

SGT. PEARSON: So yes you have.

P.O. EHNES: Yeah.

SGT. PEARSON: And what was the uh talk of the office about these tickets?

P.O. EHNES: It was just like in passing that somebody had used the tickets. I don't remember who talked about it, but I actually saw it and I got the idea it was on the news, so that's where....

SGT. PEARSON: And what exactly did you see on the news?

P.O. EHNES: They did a story about how some people in uhh Detroit were lucky fans that didn't have tickets and undercovers in Detroit were passing out tickets that they had scalped for (inaudible).

SGT. PEARSON: And, and when was that on the news?

P.O. EHNES: (inaudible) right before they came to uh St. Louis.

SGT. PEARSON: Right before.....?

P.O. EHNES: Detroit came, cause I know it was in Detroit.

P.O. EHNES: No I mean I've heard of it before. I mean like that it's happened, you know before hand, but that's you don't put a lot of strong hold on stuff. (inaudible)

SGT. PEARSON: So you've heard it in general conversation and then you uh saw how it really worked on tv when you saw a special about it?

P.O. EHNES: Right. They was just a, it was just a short story about it.

SGT. PEARSON: Ok. So that day you call your wife, ur, before you made the phone call what, what, what made you think that you could have the authority to do such a thing with the tickets?

P.O. EHNES: I guess I just...I didn't think about it that much. I, I just thought you know that they be scanned in and brought back, and they would you know give the, my kids a life chance (inaudible)

SGT. PEARSON: Um have you ever received a phone call or had ah conversation with any department member whether its an officer, commander of this department requesting tickets they conceived as evidence for personal use?

P.O. EHNES: Uh no.

SGT. PEARSON: So you've never received a request such as that?

P.O. EHNES: No.

SGT. PEARSON: Had, is anyone that you know of in the Narcotics office ever received a request such as that?

P.O. EHNES: I don't remember what he....said about it or anything.

LT. HUELSMANN: Specifically do you remember if he objected; saying Mike don't do that you shouldn't do that.? Do you remember that if he said that?

P.O. EHNES: I don't remember.

LT. HUELSMANN: You don't remember, alright?

SGT. PEARSON: Mr. Ehnes we're gonna move to the second arrest that uh you took part of and actually you were the assisting officer and that was the arrest that was made on October 25, 2006 and it bears complaint number 06088953. Um can you give us a brief summary of this arrest?

P.O. EHNES: Uh Mr. Johnson tried to sell Rob Singh and I tickets uh that were $200 for $4000.

SGT. PEARSON: $4000 a piece?

P.O. EHNES: Uh I believe it was total.

SGT. PEARSON: And uh who placed Mr. Johnson under arrest?

P.O. EHNES: Rob Singh.

SGT. PEARSON: And uh what was taken as evidence from Mr. Johnson?

P.O. EHNES: Uh the two World-Series tickets.

SGT. PEARSON: And where, doing the uh was he arrested or summonsed?

P.O. EHNES: He was actually arrested.

LT. HUELSMANN: This is Lt. Huelsmann. We're resuming the interview with Officer Ehnes. The time is 10:05 AM. I closed the tape about 20 minutes ago because I was confused about some data that I have regarding this investigation in that Officer Ehnes reports that his wife used the two tickets seized on October 25th by a subject named Melvin Hackett to go to the game on the 25th which was a rain out and then re-scheduled and played on the 27th, on a Friday. attend that game, which would mean that Officer Ehnes' wife and son actually used four tickets, the two from Melvin Hackett and then the two from Eric Johnson ... so the question that I posed Officer Ehnes during the break in the interview was to clarify that confusion on my part ... so with that said ... Officer Ehnes can you shed some light on this?

P.O. EHNES: I know that I gave my wife two sets of tickets. I mean it doesn't make any sense obviously at all ... four tickets were scanned in ...

LT. HUELSMANN: ... On the 27th.

P.O. EHNES: ... On the 27th ... right ... it's something I guess I'm gonna have to ask her.

LT. HUELSMANN: So the two tickets from Melvin Hackett seized on the 25th, alright it's my understanding that game was ... you know ... the gates were open and people were allowed in on Wednesday, but that game was rained out and rescheduled for Friday the 27th of October. You know the Cardinals data ... the data that we got from the Cardinals office ... is that all four of these tickets we're talking about ... the two from Mr. Hackett and the two from Eric Johnson ... were all scanned in on October 27th ... so ... but you cannot explain that ... indicating to me then that four people used those tickets ...

P.O. EHNES: I'm assuming so ... yes.

LT. HUELSMANN: But you don't have an answer to the question?

P.O. EHNES: No ... I ...

LT. HUELSMANN: Okay ... alright.

DATED
MARCH 15, 2007

P.O. EHNES: I didn't steal $2000.

SGT. PEARSON: So ... being that he contends that you took the tickets and we found that to be true ... um ... there's some confusion about the tickets ... you still contend that you did not take Mr. Johnson's money?

P.O. EHNES: I know I didn't take any money.

SGT. PEARSON: Did Officer Singh take Mr. Johnson's money?

P.O. EHNES: No.

SGT. PEARSON: Do you have any further ...

SGT. McCLAIN: No.

SGT. PEARSON: Commander ...

CAPTAIN HAYDEN: I just have one other question. When you said that at some point in time you and Singh (inaudible) ... when in front of you all (inaudible) ... if Singh took the money and you actually said that he ... that you know for sure he didn't ... or you said that when he was in your presence (inaudible).

P.O. EHNES: When he was in my presence ... he didn't.

LT. HUELSMANN: But during any contact that you had with Eric Johnson, did he tell you that Officer ... Detective Singh ... or anybody else took money from him?

P.O. EHNES: No ... and I think he ... it should have been on the arrest register and on his property bag ...
