NARRATIVE

Detective Fredrick Lathan, DSN 5240 and I were assigned to a 'Ticket Scalping' detail in the downtown area near Busch Stadium. This investigation involved Game 3 of the Major League World Series, between the St. Louis Cardinals Vs Detroit Tigers.

Detective Lathan and I were approached by Jeffery B. in the 400 block of Market. I asked him if he was selling any Cardinal Baseball tickets. Jeffery B. stated, 'Yes, I have three and I am asking $400.00 a piece.' I agreed to the price.

Detective Lathan and I identified ourselves as police officer by displaying our department badge and credentials. We advised Jeffery B. that he was under arrest for 'Resale Tickets Too High' and read him his Miranda Rights, per Gen-19, which he stated that he understood and made the following statement, 'I was just selling these to get my money back'.

The tickets had a face value of $150.00 and are listed as follows:
Section 431, Row 7, seats 13 and 14 for 10/25/06 and Section 431, Row 7, seat 13.

The listed tickets were seized. I marked, packaged, and placed the property in the Property Custody Room as evidence.

NARRATIVE

While working an undercover ticket scalping detail for the St. Louis Cardinals baseball World Series game Detective Ehnes and I were approached by Eric J. Eric J. asked if we wanted to buy tickets. Eric J. wanted to sell two $200.00 tickets for $4000.00.

Detective Ehnes and I advised Eric J. that we were Police Officers and displayed our department badge and identification and advised him that he was under arrest for Reselling Tickets at a Higher Price and advised him of the Constitutional Rights per MPD Form GEN-19, which he stated he understood. Eric J. became irate that he was being placed under arrest and stated 'Now I'm out the money for the tickets. This is bullshit. I ain't hurting no one. If I'm going to jail, I want you to count my money. I know exactly how much I have and I don't trust any of you motherfuckers.'

Eric J. was conveyed to the Central Patrol Division. A computer check of Eric J. revealed no active wanteds or warrants. The tickets were seized as evidence.

NARRATIVE

I, along with Detectives Wendell Ishmon, DSN 5037, Michael Ehnes, DSN 5628, and Robert Singh, DSN 6357, were working a ticket scalping detail during the 2006 World Series between the St. Louis Cardinals and Detroit Tigers.

While working in an undercover capacity, at approximately 1610 hours, I came into contact with a white male subject, later identified as Kenny L. During the course of general conversation, I asked Kenny L. if he had any tickets to the baseball game that he wanted to sell. Kenny L. asked me how many I needed and I stated I was looking for `four`. Kenny L. asked me how much money I wanted to spend to which I replied `depends on the seats`.

Kenny L. retrieved four tickets from the inside of his jacket pocket and handed the tickets to me. Two of the tickets were in section 167, row 20, seats 11 and 12 (face value $200.00) and the other two tickets were in section 431, row 9, seats 19 and 20. (face value $150.00)

Kenny L. stated he wanted `$800.00` for the `lower two` and `$600.00` for the `upper pair.` At this time, Detective Ishmon and I displayed our Department issued badges and identified ourselves as Police Officers. I placed Kenny L. under arrest for `resale of tickets to high` and advised him of his Constitutional Rights to which he stated `you can't arrest me, you didn't even give me any money.` I explained to Kenny L. that the overt act of attempting to sell the tickets to me at a higher cost than the face value posted on the tickets was sufficient cause for arrest. Kenny L. stated `that's bullshit.`

A search incident to arrest of Kenny L. revealed a [REDACTED] found in his right front pants pocket. Continuing with the search, I retrieved Kenny L.'s wallet from his rear pocket of his pants. While I was attempting to locate his identification, I located [REDACTED]. After examining the [REDACTED], I believed it to be [REDACTED].

I advised Kenny L. of additional charge of [REDACTED] to which he stated `I'll do whatever you want man, you don't want me, I'll tell you where the big guys are.`

Kenny L. was transported to the Central Patrol Station where he was booked on the indicated charges.

Once at Central Patrol, I had Kenny L. retrieve his [REDACTED] from his person and [REDACTED]. Kenny L. [REDACTED]. I produced a Property Receipt and properly filled out same indicating the seizure of [REDACTED] from Kenny L.

After learning his [REDACTED] was going to be held as evidence, Kenny L. became very irate and uncooperative, refusing to sign his booking sheet.

Detective Kranz and I approached Matthew E. and asked him if he was selling any Cardinals Baseball tickets. Matthew E stated, `Yes, I got two for eight hundred dollars each.` I agreed to the price.

Detective Kranz and I identified ourselves as Police Officers by displaying our department badges and credentials. I issued Matthew E. a summons for `Resale Tickets Too High`.

The Tickets each had a value of $225.00 and are listed as follows:

Section 167 Row 11 seat 7

Section 167 Row 11 seat 8

The listed tickets were seized, Detective Kranz marked, packaged, and placed the property in the Property Custody Room as evidence.

NARRATIVE

Detective Jason Scheel, DSN 4606, and I were assigned to a 'Ticket Scalping' detail in the downtown area near Busch stadium. This investigation involved Game 4 of the Major League Baseball World Series, St. Louis Cardinals Vs Detroit Tigers.

Detective Scheel and I approached Demond S. in the lobby of the Hilton Hotel located at 100 S. Broadway. I asked him if he was selling any Cardinal Baseball tickets. Demond S. asked me how many did I need. I advised him I needed two tickets. Demond S. stated he had two tickets and he was asking $500.00 a piece. I agreed to the price. Seconds later we were interrupted when two other subjects, later identified as Lonell H. and Jermaine C., had approached us and began talking to us. Lonell H. advised me he also had two tickets to the game and he was selling his for $400.00 a piece. Jermaine C. advised me if I would buy the tickets from him he would sell me his two tickets for $350.00 a piece. During the conversation all three of the subjects had handed their tickets to me so I could see who had better seats.

I observed all six of the tickets to have the face value of $175.00. Detective Scheel and I identified ourselves as police officers by displaying our department badges and credentials. We advised all three subjects that they were under arrest for 'Resale Tickets Too High.'

The listed tickets were seized. I marked, packaged, and placed the property in the Property Custody Room as evidence.

NARRATIVE

Detective Jason Scheel, DSN 4606, and I were assigned to a 'Ticket Scalping' detail in the downtown area near Busch stadium. This investigation involved Game 4 of the Major League Baseball World Series, St. Louis Cardinals Vs Detroit Tigers.

Detective Scheel and I approached Stephen E. in the 500 block of Market, where he was standing inside of the park. I asked him if he was selling any Cardinal Baseball tickets. Stephen E. asked me how many did I need. I advised him I needed four tickets. Stephen E. stated he had the tickets and he was asking $500.00 a piece. I agreed to the price. Stephen E. handed me the tickets so I could see where the seats were located.

I observed the tickets to have the face value of $175.00. Detective Scheel and I identified ourselves as police officers by displaying our department badges and credentials. We advised Stephen E. that he was under arrest for 'Resale Tickets Too High.' Stephen E. was summons and released.

The listed tickets were seized. I marked, packaged, and placed the property in the Property Custody Room as evidence.

NARRATIVE

While working the World Series Detail on todays date I observed suspect Willie M. standing in the 800 block of Clark, holding two World Series Tickets. As I walked past Wille M. he asked me if I was looking for tickets for the game. I told him I was and asked how much he wanted. Willie M. stated he wanted $500.00 each. I noticted the face value of the tickets were $190.00 each.

At this time I identified myself to Willie M. and placed him under arrest for `Resale Tickets Too High`.

A computer check revealed no active wants or warrants and he was subsequently released on this summons.

The tickets seized were two Game 4 tickets; Section 351, Row 2, Seats 7 & 8.
